Terms and Conditions

1. To be eligible for a Scholarship, Applicants must:
  - a) Be a Canadian citizen or have permanent resident status
  - b) Certify that all the information provided on the Program application form ("Application") and in all the enclosed documents is true, accurate, and complete to the best of their knowledge
  - c) Be available for an interview in the city located within their region on the day chosen by the Brilliant Minded Women Foundation

2. A Scholarship awarded under the Program can be held at any college, university, or paid educational program in Canada or globally, approved by the Brilliant Minded Women Foundation. The Scholarship recipient is responsible for securing admission to an Approved School of their choice, in accordance with the requirements and deadlines of each school.

3. The Brilliant Minded Women Foundation Scholarship shall have a maximum value of forty thousand Canadian dollars, disbursed over four years, and paid directly to the recipient.
A recipient must:
  - a) Enroll in an Approved School on a full-time or part-time basis, as defined by the institution
  - b) Successfully complete all courses.

4. Recipients are allowed to change disciplines, programs, and/or Approved Schools during the scholarship term. If necessary, grades or marks obtained in supplementary or repeated examinations within the same academic year will be taken into consideration.

5. All recipients must provide their personal information for T4A tax reporting purposes and acknowledge the tax implications of receiving the scholarship.

6. All recipients will be required to sign a Declaration and Release allowing the Brilliant Minded Women Foundation to use their personal information and photograph, without further compensation, for any publicity related to the Program.

7. Scholars may attend Brilliant Minded Women Foundation events, participate in Scholarship advisory councils, and receive invitations to join social media groups associated with the Foundation.

8. The Brilliant Minded Women Foundation reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to modify, amend, or cancel the Scholarship Funds at any time without prior notice if the Scholar fails to adhere to the Terms and Conditions of the Scholarship Program under the following conditions:
  - a) Upon any behavior deemed inappropriate on the part of the Recipient, including misconduct in the workplace during summer employment that may lead to termination "for cause."
  - b) If a recipient fails to remediate a course within the same school year, excluding cases of serious illness, accident, or death in the immediate family (requiring supporting medical documentation), they will forfeit the Scholarship. Recipients who do not drop courses before the school's specified deadline will be liable for any remaining tuition and penalty fees.
  - c) Recipients are allowed to defer enrollment in an Approved School for up to one year or interrupt their studies for up to one year, once only, upon successful completion of an academic year. Reinstatement of the Scholarship is contingent upon reacceptance at an Approved School. Recipients who fail to return to school after one year of deferment or who withdraw from school will forfeit the Scholarship.
  - d) Applicants providing false information to the Brilliant Minded Women Foundation at any time are ineligible to receive a scholarship.
